

May 31, 2006

Kashmir: Attacks Kill a Policeman and Wound 21

REUTERS

A policeman was killed and 21 people were wounded in a string of attacks in the Indian-administered part of the disputed Kashmir province, as India and Pakistan began talks on how to end such attacks. A spokesman for the Pakistan-based Jaish-e-Muhammad militant group claimed responsibility for the attack in Srinagar that killed the policeman. The attacks coincided with talks between Indian and Pakistani officials in the Pakistani capital, Islamabad, on terrorism and the trafficking of drugs and people.

Copyright 2006

The New York Times Company